and Culinary History of Orange County

A historic tour
amidst costumed actors and exciting scenes

This guided historical tour of Fairhaven Memorial Park (1702 E. Fairhaven, between Tustin and Grand) and Santa Ana Cemetery offers an exciting glimpse into the past! Costumed actors play out scenes from personal stories and interesting moments of Orange County history in a beautiful, park-like setting.

Orange County has long been a leader in agricultural and culinary circles that produced world-famous citrus and lured Hollywood luminaries into a tea room that was “the place to see and be seen.” The men and women who farmed and fed the region may surprise you. Hear the sweet success story of Holly Sugar. Visit Irene Daniger's tea room, hot spot for the stars of the 1940s. Learn secrets of the grocery biz from Mr. Smart and Mr. Final. Attend a lesson on unlocking the gender mysteries of poultry. Discuss menus with the Women's Matron of 1920s Orange County Jail.

Make your reservations TODAY and learn a few of the many secrets of the sun, the soil, and the unique opportunities that lured settlers to the beautiful Santa Ana Valley!
