Amusements in Early Orange County

An historic tour amidst costumed actors and exciting scenes

Saturday, October 22, 2011 • 10:00 am to 3:00 pm

This guided historical tour of Fairhaven Memorial Park (1702 E. Fairhaven, between Tustin and Grand) and Santa Ana Cemetery offers an exciting glimpse into the past! Costumed actors play out scenes from personal stories and interesting moments of Orange County history in a beautiful, park-like setting.

Long before 3-D movies, Disneyland, or even television, Orange County already knew how to have a good time. Swimming parties, sports teams, silent movie palaces, and early amusement parks all figured in the busy social lives of early residents. Glimpse the Southland's own turn-of-the-century "Boardwalk Empire"--in Seal Beach! Listen as a star struck lad describes a visit to Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. Hear how Santa Ana's Yost Theater became the vaudeville capital of Orange County. Early Orange County worked and played hard.

Make your reservations TODAY as we reveal some of the touching, inspirational, and sometimes amusing personal stories of our early residents. We're sure you'll be amused too!

Tickets: $20.00

Save by purchasing tickets in advance for $18.00 (before Oct. 20)

Reservations recommended to hold your preferred tour time.
